

LNCQ General Meeting Minutes
June 1, 2009

The meeting was opened at 7:00 p.m. by President Patti Smith. 67 members were present with 8 guests attending.

Treasurer's report for the month of May:

Income	$357.90
Expenses	93.00
Balance 5/31, 2009	$11,052.74

Old Business:

Work Day – 13 quilters attended work day. 12 quilts were sandwiched. Thanks to those who took quilts home to work on, 8 quilts were brought back tonight. Child Safe is receiving community service quilts.

Project Hero Quilts – Ann Eatman has 18 as of right now. They will be delivering more quilts to Cheyenne in July.

Chairs are still needed for some committees – Memoirs, Workshops, newsletter advertising help. Patti would like a co chair for each committee.

Rocky Mountain Quilt Festival will be held August 22/23. LNCQ will have 5 booths for the show. We would like Projects (Show and Tell) in one booth and sell hot dog pillowcases and zipper bags (zippers are available) in another. We need volunteers. Check out LNCQ.org and read all the information and get patterns for the pillowcases and bags.

Victorian Sunday in the Park – Maxine announced we will be having a table at the Victorian Sunday in the Park, many activities will be going on and we do need volunteers to man the table.

Helena Leysar announced that the garage sale will be going on August 8. You can bring your items to this meeting and the August meeting. She will be needing volunteers.

Program

Kathee Houser introduced the speaker, Terri Sandelin who has just had her book Miniatures in Minutes published. She gave a very interesting program on her techniques. A short break was then held.

Announcements

Maxine Carlstedt announced that there will be a studio tour on Saturday, June 13 from 9 to 4. This is sponsored by the Rocky Mountain Creative Quilters. The next meeting of this guild is Monday, July 13 at 6:30. Laura Wasilowski will be giving the program.

Twenty-three items were displayed for show and tell. Susan Rowland won $25 gift certificate from the Fig Leaf.

22 door prizes were given out.

The Silent Auction Basket winners were announced by Helena. A total of $454 was made on the auction.

Next Board Meeting is July 6.

Next General Meeting is August 3.

Meeting adjourned by President Patti.

Respectfully submitted by Pat Benz, Secretary
