

LNCQ General Meeting Minutes August 3, 2009

The meeting was opened at 7:00 p.m. by President Patti Smith. 62 members were present with 9 guests attending. Patti encouraged us all to show our quilts whenever we can.

Treasurer's report for the month of July:

| | | |
|--------------------|----|-----------|
| Income | $ | ---- |
| Expenses | | 101.29 |
| Balance 5/31, 2009 | $ | 11,328.12 |

Announcements:

We need quilts to hang in our booth at the Rocky Mountain Quilt Festival, these need to be turned in this week, Friday at the Fig Leaf from 1 to 5 and Saturday at the Presser Foot. Kelly Gallagher-Abbott showed two winners of the Hoffman Challenge, the total collection will be shown at the Festival.

Legacy of Fabrics is going on now at the Lincoln Center. The Capitol Quilt show goes until August 9. Cheyenne will have a quilt show this weekend; vendors will be there on Saturday.

Helena announced the garage sale would be this weekend, August 8 at Our Savior's Lutheran Church on LeMay. Volunteers are needed for Friday and Saturday.

Shawnette (Community Service) and Barbara Cohen (Child Safe Director) talked about Child Safe Quilts. 45 quilts were put together by volunteers for Child Safe. LNCQ is preparing kits for this purpose. Their raffle block was shown.

A survey for all LNCQ members is on the website and hard copies were available, the survey needs to be turned in by August 15.

Program

In the absence of Kathee Houser, Maxine introduced our speaker for the evening. Carrie Hargrave gave a talk on thread, 'Untwisting the Truth'.

General Announcements

The Christmas meeting will be dessert and coffee and also ¾ stations where people attending will learn a technique that evening.

Jan Rondeau announced that they have moved their shop in Johnstown; the new address is 257 Johnstown Centre Cr.

Anne Eatman talked about the Project Hero project. The Reporter Herald in Loveland had an article concerning the donation of a quilt. 30 quilts have been donated.

Show and Tell

Eleven quilts were shown. A drawing was held which included the names of those who showed quilts. Arlene Gensler was the lucky winner of a $10 gift certificate donated by The Little Wool Shop of Windsor.

Opportunity prizes were handed out to the lucky winners.

Board Meeting – September 7, 9:00a.m. at Morningside Community Center

General Meeting – October 5